MEET THE CAST AND ORCHESTRA

Ethan Avina, on tuba, is a freshman from Lyons, Ohio majoring in Music Business. Ethan is also involved in band, Wind Ensemble, MAC, and is the Freshman Class President. Ethan would like to say that it's nice to be nice.

Michael Booth (Rehearsal pianist) is a non traditional student studying Liturgical Music with hopes of entering into the seminary. Although this is his first production here at Saint Joseph he is certainly not new to theater. He has appeared in numerous productions back home in Logansport. With experience as a director and conductor he brings with him a wide range of experience

Sabrina Butts, (Policeman), is a sophomore from South Bend majoring in English and Psychology. Sabrina is also involved in the Writing Clinic Band, and Cup o Joe. Sabrina would like to say that "It's on Patricia!!"

Laura Courtney, (choreographer and police officer), is a senior from Des Plaines, IL majoring in elementary education. Laura is also involved dance team, Columbian players, ISEA, Alpha Lambda delta, and Delta Epsilon Sigma. Laura would like to thank my family for always supporting everything I do and coming to my performances. I would also like to thank John Rahe and the cast for making this show so much fun.

Shana Dempsey (police officer) is a freshman majoring in English here at SJC. Shana is a DJ at 93.3 THE JOE radio, a writer for the OBSERVER, and a member of the SJC concert choir. Shana would like to send a special thank you to all her amazing friends and wonderful family for coming out to see the play and supporting her in every way possible. She loves you all and is grateful for everything everyone has done for her. She wishes everyone the best of luck and to break a leg!

Khris R. Dickover, (Trombone), is a Sophomore from Tipton majoring in Music Education. Khris is also involved in Jazz Band and Jazz Choir. Khris would like to tell say "Everyone in the pit has done a great job pulling this together. They are all hard workers and I admire each of them. Thank you Ryan Shaneyfelt for asking me to be a part of this production."

Tony Dyer (Sergeant of Police) is a soph. from Logansport, IN. This is Ton's third Columbian Players show.

Sarah Fisher, (General's ward), is a freshman from Hotchkiss, Colorado majoring in History and Music. Sarah is also the vice president of the Habitat for Humanity club on campus.

Kristin Gorski (police man) in this production. I am a senior from Munster, Indiana. I am majoring in Elementary Education and my minor is in American Sign Language/Special Needs. I am also involved in the Dance Team here at Saint Joseph's. I would like to thank my Mom for pushing me into acting. I love acting, singing, and dancing and without my Mom none of this would be possible!

Matt Harmon, (Frederic, is a Sophomore from Bristol, Indiana majoring in Wildlife Ecology. Matt is also involved in Band, he is a member of the Amphibian Research Team here at SJC. Matt is the Sophomore Class President and the student representative for the Academic Cabinet. Matt would like to say Happy Birthday to his little sister who is turning eight years old this weekend, April 4th! Everyone make sure to wish her a Happy Birthday! She'll be the kid with me after the show who responds when you say "Happy Birthday, Lizzy."

Allison Hillmann (Ruth) is a Freshman from Michigan City majoring in Theater. Allie is also involved in Chamber Singers, Choir, and the Columbian Players. Allie would like to say thank you to Laura, Renee, and John for their patience and guidance, the friends, the fam, the folks, and the Paparazzi for leading me here.
